

Testimonials from Moss Hey Parents 2017

"Coming from a different country, the first day of school was daunting for our girls, as well as for us as parents. However, meeting Mrs Smith the Head teacher, as well as the other teachers and staff, lifted all of our worries away. The Moss Hey school community has made our girls' transition into a new culture and school a wonderful experience with very personal attention to our children's needs.

"We love Moss Hey School because it's so friendly and welcoming. Children across all year groups know each other and look after each other - the buddy system is fabulous."

Emma & Chris Smith

"Moss Hey teachers and staff are very approachable. Teachers are always willing to take the time to talk about things when asked. The Head has an excellence presence, and often meets and greets in the playground in the mornings."

Natalie Carlson

"At Moss Hey there is an overriding feeling of a school that is going places, the children are eager to start each day and there's an enthusiasm from the staff that pours out of the classroom doors." Owen Twiss

"We are so pleased we chose Moss Hey for our daughter. She is flourishing at a lovely school which has a unique family atmosphere along with excellent quality of teaching. Moss Hey is a fantastic school."

Dr and Dr Stockton

"Moss Hey treats children as individuals. I appreciate how our daughter is given work that stretches her but is achievable for her, and is different from what other children are doing."

Natalie Carlson

"Our children are happy, engaged and thriving, both academically and socially, at Moss Hey and we're delighted with the school. There's an excellent balance between learning and well-being, and aspirations are high with teachers, parents and children working in partnership to achieve."

Anna & Lee Higham

"Moss Hey is a small, friendly school with an incredible sense of community. The children thrive in a happy, safe and ever evolving environment."

Tina Kershaw

“Moss Hey has a very nurturing atmosphere, for the first few weeks of reception, our son’s Year 6 lunch buddy was his favourite thing about school!”

Natalie Carlson

“There is a significantly different ‘feel’ to life at Moss Hey. Its size gives the school a much more personal feel – it is warm, welcoming, caring, lively, endlessly enthusiastic and has a real sense of community.”

Anna & Lee Higham

“The leadership is exceptional, the teaching is excellent and the academic standards are high. But most importantly, our son is very happy at Moss Hey and always says he’s had a good day.”

Paul and Nicola Mullen

“Learning opportunities are diverse, including music, forest school and gardening, and parent involvement is actively encouraged. Above all, we know our children are happy there.”

Emma & Chris Smith

“We love Moss Hey because it’s a small school with big ambitions for our children! We love the inclusive atmosphere of the school. For the children, who know each other across the different age groups, and for the parents who are actively invited to get involved in school life.”

Owen Twiss

“The quality of the teaching is incredible. I am frequently amazed by how much my son has learned in the time he’s been at Moss Hey.”

Ms R. McIntyre

“There’s an enthusiasm and positivity to Moss Hey that sets it apart, achievement is celebrated every day. The approach to the curriculum is excellent, and is delivered to ensure that children really do enjoy learning, in those all-important early years.”
